Miss Mildred Pyles entertained a dozen friends most charmingly Friday evening as a farewell compliment to her sisters, Miss Ophelia Sawtell and Mrs. Lorenzo Cullum, who leave tomorrow afternoon, the former to resume her duties at Johns Hopkins hospital and the latter to her home in Batesburg, S. C. Cards, conversation and music were the diversions that rounded out a most delightful evening of charming informality and hospitality so famous at Glenhurst. Miss Pyles assisted by her sister, Miss Katherine Pyles, served a delicious chicken salad course at 11 o'clock to her guests, who were, beside the honorees, Misses Elizabeth Mizelle, Mira Hammond, Messrs. Charles Bink, William Gist, Earl Hall, Tom McGuire, LaGrange Sistrunk, W. B. Gallagher, Jim Pyles, Mrs. Sistrunk and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Pyles, with the handsome little grandson, Master Lorenzo Cullum Jr.

Mrs. Charles Kelly entertained a few friends yesterday afternoon at her home on Forest street, to honor Mrs. Lee Raysor before she leaves for her Florida home for an extended visit. The afternoon was spent pleasantly with sewing and fancy work. The rooms were prettily decorated in red and white carnations and ferns. At 4 o'clock refreshments were served by the hostess. Seated at the table were Mrs. Lee Raysor, Mrs. J. M. Franks, Mrs. Fred Dann, Mrs. M. Buellom, Mrs. J. Eteldgron and the hostess, Mrs. Kelly.—Reno, Nev., State Journal.

After spending the summer in Jacksonville, the guest of her sister, Miss Bertha Smith, Miss Lillian Smith returned to Ocala Sunday, in order to resume her studies in the Ocala high school. She was accompanied by her brother, Mr. E. C. Smith, who has been traveling for a big firm in South Georgia and Florida for several months. Their friends are glad to have these two popular young folks in Ocala again.

A silver tea for the benefit of the proposed city park will be given at the home of Mrs. Harvey Clark on Fort King avenue, Friday, September 29. The hours will be from 4 o'clock in the afternoon to 10 o'clock in the evening. The park is being promoted by the Woman's Club, and the club asks the assistance of the public. Work on the park will be started next month, under the direction of Mr. Harold B. Swope, landscape architect.

Miss Ophelia Sawtell, who has been at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. R. Pyles for some weeks, on her vacation, will return this week to her work as a nurse in Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore. She will be accompanied as far as Columbia, S. C., by her sister, Mrs. L. D. Cullum, who will return to her home in Batesburg, near Columbia.

Dr. Sylvan McElroy, who has been a member of a jolly house party from Orlando at Daytona Beach, will join his wife and little son here this afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dozier for a short visit. They expect to return to their home in Orlando tomorrow afternoon, going in their car.

Mrs. Fannie Anthony went to Jacksonville Sunday morning, for a visit to Mrs. W. Bert McDonald. She was met at the station by her son, Private Edward C. Anthony of Co. A, and taken over to the camp at Black Point for a visit. The boys at the camp are always glad to see Mrs. Anthony.

Lieutenant Marsh of Company A came up from Jacksonville Saturday night and spent Sunday with his relatives and friends here. He returned to Jacksonville on the limited Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hiers, formerly of this city, but now residing in Miami, will move this week into their own handsome new residence that has just been completed. Mr. Hiers has prospered in his new home.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. White, who have lived in Bellevue for many winters, will be sorry to hear that Mrs. White's sister, Mrs. E. L. Hough, died at her home in Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 16.

The many friends of Mrs. Geo. F. Williams will regret to learn that she and her two charming daughters, Misses Beatrice and Orrie, will soon leave to make their home in Atlanta.
